Assistant Commissioner for Patents
U.S. Patent and Trademark Office
Washington, DC 20231

Dear Assistant Commissioner:

As the sole inventor, I have enclosed two forms for Revocation of Power of Attorney or Authorization of Agent for two of my patents that are currently Published Patent Applications.

The two published patent applications, Method of Treating Chronic Ulcers (Filed May 30, 2001; USPTO Application Number 09870414) and Method of Stimulation of Hair Growth (Filed May 30, 2001; USPTO Application Number 09870424), were filed by Alston and Bird, LLP. I now am choosing to revoke the Power of Attorney I had given them, and would like all correspondence directed to me until I choose another patent firm.

At this time, there should be no assignee other than myself for either of these applications.

Sincerely,

Anton-Lewis Usala, MD

Re: or Marking:

Enclosed is documentation sent via Registered Mail to the USPTO (received by the USPTO on July 29, 2002) in which I sent in two Revocation of Power or Attorney forms for two patent applications, 09870424 Method of Stimulating Hair Growth and 09870414 Method of Treating Chronic Ulcers. I have learned from the examiner that only the 09870414 case has had the correspondence turned over to me, and the patent examiner suggested I fax you to determine the status of the other case, 09870424.

I would greatly appreciate either a call or fax so that I may discuss the 09870424 application with the patent examiner. I have faxed with this cover letter the Registered Mail receipt, the two Revocation of Power or Attorney forms, and the original cover letter I sent with them.

Sincerely,

Anton-Lewis Usala, MD
